Asia Pacific Medical Publications: NAVIGATING OUR FUTURE

It is our pleasure to welcome you to the second Asia Pacific Meeting of ISMPP. Building on the success of the inaugural meeting that focused on collaboration within the region to drive ethical and effective publications, we again welcome delegates from all stakeholder groups – industry, agency, authors, editors and regulatory. Our program looks at the tools and strategies available to address the current challenges we face while exploring the emerging issues and trends that will shape our future. It is designed to be a highly interactive day led by our expert faculty; please do take the opportunity to share your opinions, challenges and best practices!
